INTRAMURALS CLOSE

SEMI FORMAL DANCE IN SINTON

A week from tomorrow, February 19, Xavier University in conjunction with Mt. St. Joseph and Our Lady of Cincinnati Colleges will sponsor a semi formal dance.

It has been decided that the dance will be held in the Rookwood Room in the Sinton Hotel. The Sinton was unanimously agreed upon because it is situated at Fourth and Vine Streets, in the heart of Cincinnati.

The music will be styled by Smitty's orchestra, one of the town's best bands. He is currently appearing at the Gibson Hotel.

The tickets are now on sale in the Registrar's office during the lunch hour. Everyone is urged to purchase their tickets as soon as possible.

All Xavier men are encouraged to bring another couple along with them.

Xavier's Reserve Officer Training CORPS PARTICIPATE IN HEARST NATIONAL RIFLE MATCH

This week, the Xavier cadets fired their targets that will be entered in the Hearst National Rifle Matches.

Every college in the United States which has R.O.T.C. is able to enter this contest. The targets will be sent to Corps Headquarters in Columbus where the two best ones are selected.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD

Bob Quinnlan, who is the manager of the intra-mural basketball league at Xavier, announced last Wednesday that a post season tournament would be held. The tournament will be started on Tuesday and will most probably continue throughout the week. All of the teams will participate in these games.

Paul Wettig's Bloody Five automatically forfeited a game to the Snowballs last Thursday. The Bloody Five did not show up in the field house for their game last Thursday a week, February 3; and according to the rules of the league, their game was forfeited.

THAT'S LIFE!

-----by Bob Quinlan

Moe Schlueter made whoopee at Lt. Meiner's nuptials Thursday.--- Since some of the Mount Saint Joe and Our Lady Of Cincinnati gals are having trouble getting dates for the dance, we suggest that each fellow take at least two girls. Boing!---Hanneken, the lucky stiff, reports to Notre Dame on March 1st. But for the lack of curvature in my lower extremities, I would be with him.---Good luck, Elmer, and beware of those St. Mary of the Woods wolves.---If Lucky Strike doesn't come across with that check they promised us, we're going to advise our friends to smoke Camels.---Bill Behler thinks he'll be sent overseas instead of going to college. As his Physics teacher would say: "He, he, yeah! Tough luck, son."---The music sto-uh-opped, but Frankie is still singing, which goes to show-er, uh, nothing.----- Economics Students who have any political views whatever come to class armed to the teeth for their own protection.---Has your cigarette tasted different lately? If so, why not smoke it instead of chewing it?---Ed Rieckhoff will soon take his third shot at the V-12 test. That's O.K. Ed. If at first you don't succeed, they will draft you.

COLONEL INSPECTS CAMPUS.

Colonel Robert S. Harsh, the commander of all R.O.T.C. units in the Fifth Service Command, visited Xavier Wednesday, while on an inspection tour of cadet units throughout the Service Command. The Colonel's visit was brief, as he returned to Columbus Wednesday evening.

XAVIER SERVICE MAN MISSING

Edward Schneider, a former X man, now serving as a Naval Air Cadet at Pensacola Naval Air Base in Florida, has been missing since Monday, when the plane in which he was flying crashed into a motorboat in the Gulf of Mexico. Mr. Schneider, the cadet's father, has asked that all the students at Xavier pray for Ed's safe recovery.
